Introduction

The U3A Dandenong constitution is a legally binding set of rules outlining how the organisation should operate. It details how it will be structured and governed and its main activities. It also explains the roles, responsibilities and powers of the board, directors, management and members.

The constitution is the standard constitution provided by Corporate Affairs. In the event of a conflict between the information in the constitution and By-laws, the Constitution overrides.

The By-laws are essentially a sub-set of administrative procedures that support the constitution. They set specifically how Dandenong U3A undertakes its roles and responsibilities.

The purpose of this document is to list the By-laws.

Note: By-laws can be changed at any time via the Committee of Management.
